Homeschool Days

Cedar Creek Ecosystem Science Reserve

SECOND THURSDAYS

Hands-on science education for ages 12 - 18 at the birthplace of ecosystem ecology and biodiversity studies!
2018-2019 Topics

Cedar Creek Ecosystem Science Reserve

2nd Thursday of each month, 10am – 3pm

September 13th: Science of Climate Change
October 11th: Forest Ecology and Tree ID
November 8th: Wildlife Field Methods I
December 13th: Art & Science
January 10th: Geology of the Anoka Sandplain
February 14th: Wildlife Field Methods II
March 14th: Experimental Design and Inquiry
April 11th: Phenology and Citizen Science
May 9th: Ornithology/Birding
June 13th: Dragonflies & Damselflies

Classes are designed for students ages 12-18. Instruction is both indoors and outdoors. Each session includes hands-on investigations and opportunities to engage with scientists and visit world-class research areas.

$18 per student per session. Advance registration required.

More details and registration information online at z.umn.edu/CChomeschool